Rayburn 'Drafted' As Floor Leader of House Democrats

Unanimous Vote Reported for Former Speaker of Body; Texan Did Not Want Post

Washington, Jan. 2 (AP)—House Democrats "drafted" Sam Rayburn of Texas today as their floor leader for the 80th Congress which convenes at noon tomorrow.

Rayburn was elected at a caucus attended by most of the 187 Democrats who will serve in the new Republican-dominated Congress.

A party leader said the vote was unanimous.

With leadership difficulties virtually solved all around, labor legislation held the spotlight on the eve of the first Republican-dominated congressional session in 15 years.

John McCormack of Massachusetts, nominated Rayburn, who served as speaker when Democrats controlled the House, for minority leader.

Rayburn came to his feet with a speech in which he said he would accept.

But his formal election was delayed while the Democratic party conference got rid of other business.

Some difficulty was encountered on picking the slate of minority nominees for various jobs still available around the House.

Rayburn had indicated all along—up until last night—that he did not want the leadership job and would support McCormack for it.

McCormack has been serving as Democratic leader.

White House Pressure

But the "draft Rayburn" drive got under way late yesterday. Party leaders said the Texas congressman had been changed his mind to prevent a split in the new minority party.

Some said direct "pressure" came from the White House too. Rayburn visited the White House late yesterday.

Rep. Joseph W. Martin, Jr., of Massachusetts, who has been Republican floor leader, takes from Rayburn tomorrow the speaker's gavel.

Rep. Leo E. Allen, Illinois Republican, said to head the powerful House Rules Committee, predicted that a "large majority" of Democrats on both sides of Capitol Hill will support G.O.P.-proposed labor legislation.

The Republicans were expected to hold back until President Truman outlines his views in his state-of-the-union message to a joint Senate-House session next Monday.

However, party heads in the House have leaned strongly toward a law which would prevent strikes in industries affecting the public health or welfare. Some of them advocate compulsory arbitration.

Most Differences Removed

Most differences that had threatened to rupture harmonious intra-party relations already have been removed.

Barring an upset of the plans of their leaders, House Republicans expected to designate Rep. Charles A. Halleck of Indiana as majority leader, Martin, Jr., as speaker, and Rep. Leslie Arends of Illinois as party whip.

Halleck's position was further strengthened when Rep. Dirksen

Governor Works on Annual Message to Legislature

Dewey Stresses Foreign, National Issues in Inaugural at Capitol

Albany, N. Y., Jan. 2 (AP)—Gov. Thomas E. Dewey, installed for another four-year term, turned today to the task of completing his annual message to the legislature after an inaugural address in which he looked beyond the state to stress foreign and national issues.

Dewey, before a colorful audience which jammed the Assembly chamber yesterday, sharply criticized the national administration, and rechartered a middle-of-the-road governmental philosophy of his own.

Pre-war pageantry was revived this year for the second time in inauguration of the 1944 Republican presidential nominee whose reelection to the governorship by a record majority brought him to the fore among 1945 presidential possibilities.

Dewey delivered his inaugural message after receiving the oath of office from Chief Judge John T. Loughran of the Court of Appeals.

He emphasized what he termed the "conflict" of individual freedom vs. government control and declared:

"The bitter lesson of recent years is that no one is wise enough to try to control and direct the human relations of a society as vast as ours. Here in our country a truly free society can continue to be the most productive, happy and stable society in the world."

"It is our solemn duty as a state to advance that cause by continuing to show that government can have both a head and a heart; that it can be both progressive and solvent; that it can serve the people without becoming their master."

Take as "Mandate"

He said he took the election results as a "mandate" to continue to advance the principle that lasting security cannot be had without freedom.

College Enrollments to Be Double Pre-War Levels

Albany, N. Y., Jan. 2 (AP)—Enrollments in New York's colleges and universities will almost double pre-war levels within 15 years, says an associate state commissioner of education.

Reporting that a record veteran-swollen jam in the institutions of higher learning totaled 269,112 students, J. Hillis Miller added yesterday that colleges could gain on large enrollments of ex-G.I.'s until about 1950.

He predicted that veterans discharged from service this year would increase 1947 freshmen classes to 50 per cent above normal.

Expansion of emergency facilities still further will be necessary if the current low "drop-out" rate of veterans from school continues, he added.

Ex-Kingstonian Is Chosen for Honor

Edward F. Hutton, 70, Is 'Man of Year' in Business Field

A famous New York financier and business man whose first job was in the factory of the long-defunct Diamond Truck & Gear Co. in Kingston, has been named "The Man of the Year in Business and Finance" by the New York Journal-American in its annual designation for the honor.

The man, Edward F. Hutton, now 70, went from the Diamond Company, located near the present Electric site, to Wall Street in New York. Starting as a $5 a week mail clerk for the receivers of the bankrupt Jarvis Conkling Mortgage Trust Company, he rose to national prominence in financial circles.

According to the Journal, "Ed Hutton, who is 70, but doesn't look within 10 years of that, knows from his own experience what opportunities the American way of private enterprise offer a young man willing to work."

Considered Classic Example

Mr. Hutton is held up by the Journal as a classic example of this. Starting as a poor boy whose father died when he was 7, Hutton began working at the age of 15.

After leaving Kingston, Hutton set out for New York to embark on a business career that is regarded as a Horatio Alger classic. That was back in 1899.

Mr. Hutton relates that he managed to save $400 and with $500 borrowed money he bought in 1899 a seat on the old Consolidated Stock Exchange.

He later formed a Stock Exchange firm—Harris, Hutton & Co. with James and Thomas Harris, who had sold a small family biscuit company to National Biscuit. This firm was dissolved and Mr. Hutton induced his uncle, William E. Hutton of Cincinnati to open a New York office with a

Boy, 15, Dies of Suffocation, 3 Are Injured in Catskill Fire

Dream Hill Inn Is Scene of Blaze; 2nd Floor Destroyed Wednesday

A 15-year-old boy died of suffocation and three persons, including a fireman, were overcome in a fire that heavily damaged the second floor of the Dream Hill Inn, Jefferson Heights, Catskill, early Wednesday. It is a restaurant and tourist home on the outskirts of Catskill.

Jules Hillenbrandt, 15, of 2059 Bleeker street, Ridgewood, L. I., died en route to the hospital. Coroner Mahlon Atkinson said the boy was overcome in a second story bedroom and died of suffocation.

His mother, Mrs. Julian Hillenbrandt, 52, and Max Hazel Walker, 36, proprietor of the restaurant, also were overcome in their beds. The victim's mother and aunt, who were not told of his death, are reported in fair condition at the Greene county Memorial Hospital.

Fireman Miland Overbaugh, 24, of Catskill, collapsed while fighting the fire. It started on the second floor and the cause was undetermined, according to the coroner. Although hampered by near-zero weather, firemen checked the blaze on the second floor. Damage was estimated at several thousand dollars.

Coroner Atkinson said the fire was discovered by Mr. and Mrs. Albert Laird, who rent an apartment on the second floor. They helped Mrs. Elsie Walker, 77, mother of the proprietor to safety, and telephoned firemen.

They were unable to reach the Hillenbrandts and Mrs. Bon Walker. An extra bed blocked one door of the second floor bedroom occupied by Mrs. Hillenbrandt and her son, the coroner said. Thick smoke foiled their efforts to enter through another door.

Firemen were able to reach the unconscious victims by using masks. The women were not revived fully until several hours later.

News Says J. A. Farley May Run With Truman

New York, Jan. 2 (AP)—The New York Daily News said today that a movement to boom James A. Farley, former postmaster general, as President Truman's vice-presidential running mate in 1948 "will be openly launched at the Jefferson Day dinner here, sometime in April."

"At the same time, a group of prominent, progressive business men will get behind Farley," the News said, adding:

"Among them, it is expected, will be Bernard Baruch, and Charles H. Silver, woolen executive and vice-president of the Alfred E. Smith Memorial Foundation."

(Commenting on the story, Baruch told the News: "I don't know a thing about it and I am not having anything to do with politics." Farley declined comment.)

Wainwright's Sword Lost on Bataan, Found

Manila, Jan. 2 (AP)—General Wainwright's treasured West Point saber, lost on the retreat into Bataan and later picked up by a Filipino beside the body of a Japanese general, was recovered today. It will be sent to Wainwright.

The saber was a gift from his mother upon his graduation from West Point in 1906. After the war, a friend told Wainwright that Roberto Garcia, a chauffeur in northern Luzon, had found it.

Garcia told U. S. Army agents he had entrusted it to a friend who had given it to two other men under threats.

The sword finally was discovered in possession of Jose Calma in a small village near Nativid, in the Pampanga river swamps, 30 miles northwest of Manila.

Republicans May Stop Bilbo When He Enters Senate

Southerner Sends Letter to Colleagues, Asks They Keep an Open Mind

Washington, Jan. 2 (AP)—The Republican Steering Committee recommended today that Senator Theodore G. Bilbo (D-Miss.) be barred at the door of the Senate when he attempts to take the oath for a new term tomorrow.

Chairman Taft (R-Ohio) said the committee's recommendation would be laid before the full Republican membership of the Senate at a meeting this afternoon.

Bilbo has been accused by an investigating committee of misusing his office and breaking the law in his relations with war contractors.

Taft indicated the possibility of an agreement with the Democratic leadership under which a threatened filibuster, which would delay organization of the Senate, would be avoided.

The Ohioan told a news conference that the possibility of setting a date shortly after the President's state of the union message is received by Congress Monday for full discussion of the Bilbo case had been talked over with Senator Barkley of Kentucky, the Democratic leader.

Taft said no agreement had been reached with Barkley yet but indicated the Republicans hope to come to an understanding with Democrats on this point before tomorrow.

A report signed by a bi-partisan majority of the Senate War Investigating Committee declared the evidence of its investigation "clearly indicates that Senator Bilbo improperly used his high office as United States senator for his personal gain in his dealings with war contractors."

Committee Chairman Kilgore (I-W.Va.) asserted that "in view of the scope of the findings" the whole record is being laid before the attorney general, whose agents were previously disclosed to be studying the Bilbo transactions.

The Little Southerner, plainly anticipating that the committee report might furnish ammunition for an "outer attack, called on his co-leagues in a letter to keep open minds and read all the evidence."

A voluminous response to the report, prepared on Bilbo's behalf by his attorney, Forrest B. Jackson, said:

"The true evidence presented to the committee clearly indicates that Senator Bilbo was guilty of no impropriety as a United States Senator and that he did not in any instance use his high office for his personal gain in his dealings with

Zito Galia's Car, Truck Collide at Clintondale; Dies at Hospital

Zito Galia of Ardonia died Tuesday at St. Francis Hospital, Poughkeepsie, from injuries which he suffered earlier in the day when his car and a truck owned by the New England Transportation Company and operated by Walter E. Keith of Danbury, Conn., were in collision on Route 55 at Clintondale.

Galia was severely injured when the vehicles skidded on the icy pavement, State Trooper Austin, who investigated the accident reported. Both cars were being operated at a moderate speed at the time of the accident.

House Committee Accuses W.A.A. of Sloppy Methods

Washington, Jan. 2 (AP)—A special House committee investigating surplus disposal accused the War Assets Administration today of "sloppy business methods" and "favoritism, if not downright corruption."

The committee declared W.A.A.'s cost of doing business is "stupidly, in fact prohibitive" and said the whole surplus property disposal program may end up "showing a net loss to the government."

The group, headed by Rep. Slaughter (D-Mo.), said in its final report, the investigation should be continued through a successor committee.

Meanwhile, it recommended Congress should eliminate priorities for the purchase of all property except real estate, exempting only government agencies buying for their own use.

The report said use of priori-

House Committee Declares Against Security Sacrifice

Naval Group Challenges A-Bomb as Weapon Against Fleets in Actual Combat

Washington, Jan. 2 (AP)—The House naval committee today formally declared against any sacrifice of security for economy, and mildly challenged the effectiveness of the atom bomb as a weapon against fleets.

The committee, wrapping up the findings of several subcommittees in the expiring Congress, said the policy on ship-building and repairing should be one that would insure against falling below the levels justified by "the international situation and this country's commitments."

It asserted that desire for "minimum expense" must be tempered "by the realization that the most expensive thing in the world is a cheap army and navy."

In discussing the Bikini atom bomb test to which it sent four observers, the committee acknowledged that far more damage might have been done had patterns of bombs been dropped.

But it argued that the Bikini fleet, on the other hand, "was concentrated beyond any formation of ships that would be operating in time of war."

The fleet was anchored. Therefore no evasive tactics were taken, no defenses provided, and no counter measures taken.

It reached the conclusion that the "atomic bomb is not most effective."

Large Stores of Liquor Are Lost, Sales Manager Says; One Fireman Burned

No Report Received

Local Office Declares Complete Details Are Lacking

A three-alarm waterfront fire at Albany swept through snow-covered warehouse and office buildings occupied by the Colony Liquor Distributors, Inc., of Kingston and Albany and a trucking concern today causing damage in excess of $400,000.

The buildings, formerly used by the Hudson River Navigation Company and spread over 800 feet of the riverfront, were destroyed except for a small two-story section.

An explosion blew out the front doors of the Colony Liquor Distributing Company, hauling 10 firemen about 40 feet. They were burned momentarily.

John J. Leslie, sales manager of the liquor firm, estimated his company's loss at $400,000, including large stores of liquor.

Vogel Gives No Estimate

The John Vogel Trucking Co., which occupied the southern half of the buildings, made no loss estimate. An undetermined number of cartons and bales in the warehouse were destroyed.

Office furniture and machines owned by the Albany District O.P.A. office also were destroyed. The walls on the river side of the buildings toppled soon after the roof caved in. Two safes plunged from a second floor office to the basement. The spectacular blaze, sending up huge billows of smoke, was brought under control after four hours.

Fireman Is Burned

One fireman, George Reitter, 62, suffered first degree burns of the face and neck.

Several fire companies were summoned away during the height of the blaze to battle a gasoline station fire that threatened a row of frame buildings in another section of the city.

Officials of the Colony Distributors in Kingston said this morning they had not received a complete report of the fire.

Reinforcements Relieve Chinese Red Pressure

Peiping, Jan. 2 (AP)—Chen Chih-cheng, deputy commander of the government's 11th War Zone, announced today reinforcements had relieved the pressure of a strong Chinese Communist attack on Paoing, Hopei provincial capital.

The government's central news agency said the Communists had failed to capture two villages five miles from Paoing and a town 23 miles away after a two day battle, and had withdrawn.

Chen said the Communists had slackened their attacks against the northern section of the Paoing-Hankow railroad after government forces drove guerrillas from Peiping's suburbs.

Won't Relax War Curb On Private Japanese Trade

Tokyo, Jan. 2 (AP)—General MacArthur said today that President Truman's relaxing of some wartime curbs does not mean private trade transactions may be conducted between Japanese and foreigners.

A headquarters statement said "private commercial transactions will be authorized when arrangements for resumption of private trade have been made."

It is possible such authorization will not be made until a formal peace treaty is signed. Meanwhile, trade will be conducted through government agencies.

Continued 'War' Promised by Chief Of Jewish Society

American's Plea for Peace Is Rejected by Irgun Leumi; Coincides With Verdict

Jerusalem, Jan. 2 (AP)—The threat of new violence hung over the Holy Land today as Irgun Zvai Leumi, rejecting an American congressman's plea for a truce, promised unrelenting "warfare" to achieve its goal of a free Palestine.

Irgun's action coincided with the verdict of a military court condemning a member of the Jewish underground organization to death for participating in an armed attack on a police station in which two police officers were killed last April 23.

The promise of continued strife was contained in a note transmitted to newspapers by Irgun leaders in reply to a message from U. S. Rep. Joseph Clark Baldwin (R., N. Y.), which was published last Saturday in the Palestine post. Baldwin, administrative chairman of the Political Action Committee for Palestine, asked Irgun to "halt operations in the Holy Land until I have acquainted the American government and people with your fight and the fight of Jewry at large."

Irgun thanked Baldwin for his

"help in the campaign to free Palestine," but declared that "nothing must stop our fight."

(Dispatches from London yesterday reported increasing indications that the official British opinion was inclining to the view that the only feasible way to settle the Palestine problem was to partition the Holy Land into separate Jewish and Arab states.)

(These advices quoted an official British source as saying that the government would give "full and serious consideration" to such a partition proposal should the matter be broached by Arabs or Jews at the London conference on Palestine, which is scheduled to resume January 21. British experts on Palestine were said to have advised the government that the situation cannot be allowed to go on indefinitely as it is at present.)

The Irgun member sentenced yesterday to die by hanging was Dov Gruner, a 33-year-old Hungarian Jew who came to Palestine six years ago and who was discharged from the Jewish brigade of the British army only 10 days before the attack on the police station.

Gruner, who has a sister in America—address unknown—was one of 15 Irgun members wounded during the attack, in which he was accused of firing a gun.

The death sentence is subject to confirmation by the Palestine military commander.

Military authorities meanwhile announced the detention of 47 persons in the all-Jewish city of Tel Aviv following an investigation into the retaliation floggings of a British major and three soldiers last Sunday. The announcement said that 2,242 persons had been questioned during the investigation.

London, Jan. 2 (AP)—British officials ushered in the New Year with the disclosure that Britain and the United States are at work on arms standardization and joint officer training, and the Paris newspaper Aurore simultaneously forecast eventual unification of the two armies under a secret accord it said would be signed March 15.

A government official, confirming in part reports heard since October, said the two countries had agreed to standardize "certain items of military equipment" and already had experts talking over standardization of small arms to U. S. sizes and patterns.

Convicts Get Reminder

An old Austrian legal custom—imposition of a special punishment on a convict on every anniversary of his crime—has been revived in Vienna. Volkssturm members who, in the last days of war, murdered political prisoners they were guarding, got long terms in prison. Each year on April 8, anniversary of the crime, they will get 24 hours solitary, on bread and water.

The Air Ministry announced last night that the Royal Air Force and the U. S. Army Air Forces were planning to start joint training with the exchange of 30 to 40 officers each, to be expanded toward an upward limit of 100 each. The exchange was expected to be effected "in the near future."

Aurore, a Socialist paper, had reported earlier that the predicted March 15 agreement would call for joint defense in event either Britain or the U. S. was attacked. Yesterday it added that equipment of the two armies would be made uniform; that British officer training would be patterned after West Point training; and that Canada would become the first proving ground of unification. The goal, the paper said, is a single fighting arm, with posts from the North Pole to the Rio Grande and from Asia Minor to Japan.

A British official, who asked reporters not to give him name, said experts discussing arm standardization were "starting at the bottom and working their way upwards." He reported no decision yet to standardize all British and U. S. military equipment, but he did not rule out this possibility. Britain, he said, "is not averse to standardizing military equipment with the Russians." He told newsmen that Field Marshal Lord Montgomery, British chief of staff, would bring back any Soviet proposals on the subject from his visit to Moscow this month but did not plan to talk arms reduction.

N.A.M. Bids Are Made

New York, Jan. 2 (AP)—The National Association of Manufacturers today called upon labor to abandon industry-wide attempts to obtain blanket wage increases, upon government to lower taxes, upon management to lower prices.

Walter B. Welsenburger, N.A.M. executive vice president, listed these as "three essentials to wide spread prosperity in 1947." "The worker, the manufacturer and the politician all should work to enable business to function for the good of all," the N.A.M. spokesman said.

Flashes of Life

Sketched in Brief

Memoranda, Ltd.

London, Jan. 2 (AP)—"What would your mother think?"

That, said Housekeeper Nora Clarke, five feet tall, was what she asked an armed burglar about to leave her employer's house with an armload of furs.

"He looked at me then and said something like, 'all right,' and put them down and left," Mrs. Clarke related to police. The burglar, however, known as did not stop the thief from getting away with about $4,000 worth of other valuables.

Buried Blessing

Branson, Mo., Jan. 2 (AP)—A fire last February destroyed the home of Dr. John Crockett, known as "the Bishop of the Ozarks." Four hundred dollars in cash was lost.

Tuesday three small boys, playing in the ashes of the parsonage, found the money in a charred suitcase, ten months after the fire.

Ladies Cops Tops

Chicago, Jan. 2 (AP)—Police Capt. Timothy Lynne, who has command of 60 policewomen, says they're better than men cops.

The women officers are less conspicuous than men policemen, said Lynne, and they are more persuasive talkers and thus can direct many potential law-breakers away from crime.

"Women are so darned stubborn," Lynne declared, "that it's only natural they should keep on digging at even the smallest clue."

Cat Trapped

Chicago, Jan. 2 (AP)—Herbert Carnes, an emergency man for the Anti-Cruelty Society, left a sick bed yesterday to rescue a tomcat which for five days had perched in the upper branches of a 65-foot tree in Aldine avenue. The cat had balked other rescue attempts but Carnes succeeded in getting close enough to the animal to slip a noose over the yowling feline and pull it down into his arms.

Carnes took the cat to the society's headquarters and went home to attempt to break it a severe cold.

Indochina Reports

Say Montet May Hold Peace Talks

Paris, Jan. 2 (AP)—Dispatches from Indochina said today that French Colonial Minister Maurice Montet, investigating trouble with Viet-Nam nationalists in that country, was going north where he had an invitation to peace talks.

The French press agency reported that Montet had left Hanoi in the south by plane for Hanoi, capital of Indochina and of the Viet-Nam republic. Ho Chi Minh, president of the republic, was said to have invited Montet over the underground Viet-Nam radio, to meet with him and discuss ways to end fighting between Viet-Nam and French troops. Ho was believed in hiding near Hanoi.

French circles would not venture any predictions as to whether Montet would receive Ho. Authorities termed his flight risky because of bad weather and possible anti-aircraft fire from Viet-Namese entrenched in Hanoi's outskirts. News of the trip was delayed for security reasons, and the agency did not give the exact time of his departure and expected landing.

Montet had just returned to Saigon after a tour of Laos in western Indochina and Cambodia in the southwest. He reported the two protectorates loyal to France but at the same time disclosed that a rebellion had been quelled in western Cambodia.

Troop reinforcements brought from France aboard the transport Pasteur were landed yesterday—the first to debark in Indochina since the outbreak began—at Cap St. Jacques southeast of the southern city of Saigon. Others were taken on to Hanoi.

Red Whaling Report

Moscow, Jan. 2 (AP)—The Soviet press, disclosing more details concerning the Russian whaling expedition which sailed for the Arctic on December 21, said today the flotilla consisted of the floating base "Glory" and eight vessels of 350 tons each. The "Glory" was said to have facilities for storing 14,492 tons of oil. Capt. V. I. Voronin is in charge of the expedition.

City and County Health Units Are Under One Head

On January first the Kingston City Board of Health ceased to exist as a separate unit and the city health activities as well as the county health work has been transferred to the newly formed County of Ulster Department of Health. The consolidation of the city activities with the county work was in accordance with action taken by the Common Council of the city and the Board of Supervisors of the county. Dr. George James is the county director in charge of the county organization.

While most city health activities have been transferred to the new county department, certain activities which will remain under the city jurisdiction have been transferred temporarily to the city clerk.

Edward R. Arnold will remain as plumbing inspector and the most inspectors will still be Dr. Philip P. Foley and Inspector John Larkin. Mildred E. Schwa, who has been registrar of vital statistics and secretary to the Kingston Board of Health, has gone over to the county organization as a typist and the work of vital statistics registrar for the city will be done by the City Clerk's office temporarily. It is expected that later a registrar will be named.

Such duties as remain and which have been transferred to the city clerk will be conducted from the office of the former board of health in the city hall it was stated today.

Dr. John F. Larkin who has served as health officer for the city of Kingston will not be connected with the county department since there is no provision in the set up of the county organization for part time employment.

In the majority of the towns the health officers are being retained for the present. The only municipalities in the county which have taken action thus far to eliminate the position of health officer is the city of Kingston and the town of Shawangunk, these two have taken the necessary action and have so notified the County Health Department. Towns and villages may retain their local health officers who will serve as subsidiary officials to the County Department of Public Health.

Charles W. Shultz, who served as food and sanitary inspector of Kingston, has been transferred to the county department as a sanitary inspector for the county.

Dr. James C. Crandall, former city milk inspector, will no longer serve in that capacity. Dr. Gilbert Hoppenstedt has been appointed county veterinarian with the county Health Department and will be on the sanitary engineers staff, having charge of inspection of pre-pasteurized and raw milk. Plant inspection will be done by Harry F. Edinger and William O'Connor, engineers.

The county board plans shortly to go over the various codes and establish a county health code and approve such local ordinances as may be desirable. Under the county system no local health board will have authority to establish local regulations without the approval of the county board.

The next meeting of the county board will be held on January 8.

Mayor Edelmuth's Annual Message to the Common Council

Delivered Here On New Year's

With War Controls Over Expects the City to Be More Progressive in Every Respect

Mayor W. F. Edelmuth's annual message to the Common Council, which he delivered on New Year's, was as follows:

Today we cross the threshold of a New Year, and once again it is my happy privilege to give to you and the people of the City of Kingston an accounting of my stewardship for the past 12 months. With the cessation of hostilities now almost two years behind us, we are all looking forward to once again resuming a normal and healthy peace time routine. We hope that with war time controls being abolished gradually again Kingston may expect to expand its business life and to encourage the building of new homes and places of business, and, in a general sense, to become more progressive in every respect.

I am very proud to say that at this time, practically all of the boys and girls who left our City to answer their country's call to arms are now back home again. It is with much sadness and with a heavy heart that I must tell you that 76 of the fair youth of our City are asleep on foreign soil and will never again return to their loved ones. In memory of those who made the supreme sacrifice, we offer a silent prayer.

With the thought of the returning veteran uppermost in our minds, your administration many months ago was instrumental in starting a housing development so that many of these displaced veterans and their families would have a home in which to live. I am happy to tell you that a housing project is now nearing completion in the Loughran Park Section of our City, and provided a smooth flow of materials and equipment is maintained I have every reason to believe that these apartments will be ready for occupancy in the very near future.

Everywhere in this great country of ours, modernization and streamlining of municipal governments has taken place. Your present administration has been constantly aware of this fact, and we too have kept pace with a progressive program of modernizing our municipal departments. The consolidation of both our City Health Department and City Welfare Department with these Departments of the County of Ulster has been a very definite step in progressive government. This consolidation will save the taxpayers of Kingston a considerable sum of money each year. Another most important progressive plan which your administration presented two years ago and which I am now happy to say is taking physical form in the establishment of a tumor clinic here in the City of Kingston. When this plant is erected it will no longer be necessary for those afflicted with this horrible disease to travel to Cornwall or Poughkeepsie for diagnosis or treatment. We will have men who have been highly trained in this branch of medicine in our employ and under the able direction of Dr. Taylor, who is one of the most competent pathologists in this section of the country. We can expect that this clinic will be under construction just as soon as materials are made available. I have always had a great deal of interest in the establishment of a tumor clinic here, and it gives me a great sense of personal pleasure to know that soon this clinic will be a realization and not just an architect's dream in blueprint.

During the past five years, the assessed valuation has been increased one million dollars, and we have paid off $200,000.00 in bonds; $30,000.00 in Water Department Bonds and $30,000.00 in Intermediate School Bonds.

We are still faced with a situation which is serious enough to warrant my bringing it to your attention again. If you will recall, I was most emphatic in bringing this to your attention in my message of January 1st, 1946. I refer to the two percent tax limitation which the constitutional amendment which threatens programs in Kingston as well as other cities in the State. However, in spite of stringent regulations imposed upon us we did accomplish much during 1946, and I shall try to give you a brief summary of the records of the various city departments:

Department of Education
During the year 1946, the Board of Education was faced with many difficult problems. There was an insufficient supply of qualified teachers, a general increase in the cost of operating the schools, increases in the salaries of teachers and increases in wages paid to the custodial staff, and a general increase in the cost of all instructional materials.

School costs have greatly increased and this increase was reflected in the rise in the school tax rate. Unless the Legislature of the State of New York increases the State Aid for Public Education to the cities and school districts in the State, this increase in school tax will undoubtedly continue.

Your Board of Education has spent considerable time studying the needs of the proposed school building program. The high school building is badly over crowded and needs to have a large addition constructed to this building. To house the Vocational Department, the Board of Education has been compelled to lease part of the Millard Building. This is a very unsatisfactory arrangement, and the only solution is the construction of an addition to the Vocational Building.

During the past year the Board of Education has made every possible effort to keep the buildings in good repair and in excellent sanitary condition. During the past summer many much needed repairs have been made to all the buildings. Constant effort is made to protect the health of the children, and to provide the best possible education for the youth of Kingston. An investment in youth is the best investment to insure the security of our democratic way of life.

Department of Public Welfare
In the early months of 1946 the Legislature of the State of New York adopted the Osterlag Plan which provided for many amendments to the New York State Social Welfare Law. The changing of residence requirements, particularly opened the doors for transfer of former Home Relief cases to the Federal Categories of Old Age Assistance and Aid for Dependent Children. The local share of any assistance granted to needy people under Old Age Assistance, Aid to the Blind, Aid to Dependent Children and Home Relief was balanced at 20 percent instead of the old system of 60 percent local share for Home Relief, 50 percent for Aid for Dependent Children and 25 percent for Old Age Assistance.

In addition, the local share of the cost of personal care in the Welfare Department was likewise reduced to 20 percent instead of the former 40 percent to 50 percent.

In June and July of the past year, the Department made substantial adjustments in basic allowances to all clients, including children in foster homes and clients in private nursing homes. These adjustments were necessary to insure that the clients, who were living on fixed and minimum allowances, would be able to meet the ever increasing cost of food, clothing and other necessities.

Water Department

Our city's water supply system has been maintained during the year at a high standard. Supplies and equipment of the department have been kept in excellent repair. The water in addition to receiving full approval of the New York State Department of Health has also continued to pass all the minute tests of the United States Public Health Service and is fully approved for use in inter-state carriers, trains, busses and planes and ships.

Fire Department

The department had no outstanding accomplishments during the year, other than regular work of extinguishing fires, and fire prevention inspection. The department did assist at two drowning cases out of the city and at one fire at Goldrick's brickyard.

The fire loss will be much higher in 1946 than in the year of 1945 because of the fact that fires occurred in buildings of high value such as churches, banks and the U.P.A. and Bull Markets as well as the Kingston Coal Company office. These fires were held mostly to the point of origin and at no time did fire extend over the entire building except the fire on lower Hasbrouck avenue, and in this case the fire was over the entire building by the time the fire department arrived. Keeping the fires confined and under control shows efficiency and hard work by the officers, paid and volunteer firemen under the command of Chief Joseph L. Murphy, and I am happy to commend the work of the entire fighting force of this city. Letters of commendation received from persons whose buildings had been razed by fire is proof of the efficient manner in which the department is conducted and is recognized by the public.

Much of the present fire fighting equipment is antiquated and is in constant need of repair. During the war years it was impossible to obtain new equipment, but I am happy to inform you that two new pieces of equipment have been ordered and will shortly be in operation in Kingston. We have purchased an 85-foot aerial truck of the La France make and 750-gallon pumper of the Mack make.

Police Department

During the past year, many changes have been made within the police department. Former Chief Charles Phinney retired on April 30th, 1946 and he was succeeded by Ernest A. Ross, who assumed his duties on May 1st, 1946. Fred C. Stoudt was appointed captain of police and a new detective force was created. Six new patrolmen have been added to the force and after a course of preliminary training have now assumed their duties. Members of the police department who have returned from the armed forces have once again taken their former positions in the department.

There has been no major outbreak of crime during the past year. The department has performed its first duty well in that its record of crime prevention is very high. Of course, there were some crimes committed but as to these I say to you that 90% of the crimes committed were solved, while 85% of those perpetrating the crimes were apprehended.

The traffic problem today is more serious than at any time in the history of our city. There have been many changes in the methods of handling the increased flow of traffic to facilitate its movement with speed consistent with safety. There will be still more changes as the needs require. The morale of the department is very high, with all men giving willingly of their time and cooperating with one another at all times to the end that by their diligence and strict adherence to duty have made it almost impossible to commit a successful crime within our city.

City of Kingston Laboratory

Since my last report to you on the activities of the laboratory, much progress has been made in anticipation of a tumor clinic for Ulster county. An Autotechnon has been in operation for several months affording more rapid reports upon tissue specimens. Additional microscopes have been procured, a large autoclave and modern lighting fixtures have been installed in the Department of Bacteriology.

It has been decided to establish a Sanitary Chemistry Department in the Laboratory in preparation for the great increase of examinations which will be needed in the newly created Ulster County Board of Health. These will consist largely of those needed in connection with the control of the milk and water supplies throughout the county and for management of sewage disposal. A large part of this work is now being done by the Division of Laboratories in Albany.

Due to rising costs of operation it was found necessary that more revenue should be obtained from the laboratory services afforded to patients in both of the hospitals located in Kingston. The institution of a small universal charge and a slight increase in maximum rates should materially increase the total revenue accruing to the laboratory. For the first time the laboratory board has requested the Board of Supervisors to contribute $15,000 towards the maintenance of the laboratory. If this is granted, we shall then be receiving $15,000 in state aid, the maximum now available under the present law which has been in effect since 1923. I wish to take this opportunity to commend Dr. Taylor and his staff for the fine work which they are doing for the citizens, not only of Kingston, but for the county as well.

Department of Public Works

In spite of the fact that materials are still difficult to come by, much has been accomplished by the Public Works Department during the past year. The highlights of several of the subdivisions are indicated as follows:

Sewers and Pumping Stations

Two gangs of sewer reconstruction crews have been busy throughout the year repairing and integrating sewers. The city engineer is in the process of preparing plans for the reconstruction of all our aged sewer lines throughout the city.

Highways

Included in the list of semi-improved streets receiving construction are Arlington Place, Becket street, Boulder avenue, Dunnehan Lane, First avenue, Green street, Harding avenue, Madison avenue, Second street, Second avenue, and Wilson avenue to mention a few. Capital improved streets are Broadway, Dock street, East Chester street, East Strand, Hurley avenue, North street and West O'Reilly street.

North Front Street
Detailed plans on North Front street are being prepared and im-terials for its widening have been ordered. Work is expected to be started early in the spring.

Machinery Maintenance

The overhead costs of maintenance, caused by the inability to get vehicle replacements, has increased considerably. Trucks, compressors, motor street sweepers and other equipment ordered early in 1946 have not arrived. Indications are that they will arrive soon.

Recreation Department

The Recreation Department has once again completed another successful season. During the winter months numerous activities were carried on at 97 Broadway. During the summer season the parks were well attended and in addition to the regular park supervisors, a leader for craft work was employed. Many children have taken a great interest in this work. This department furnished the tools and material for these boys and girls. Successful Community nights were held in the various parks with many of the children taking part in the various plays and entertainments furnished.

Public Housing

During the past year, a housing committee was formed to investigate and determine the seriousness of the housing shortage in the city. These men have given generously of their time and efforts. A survey was completed and the results have proven that the majority of those seeking living quarters were returned servicemen. We have now under construction, apartments to house these veterans, and when these structures are completed, I believe that the shortage in living accommodations will be greatly relieved.

Welcome Home

Ernest M. Stauding, former lieutenant colonel in the armed forces, and his committee, are working diligently to solicit sufficient funds from all organizations and individuals for the purpose of erecting some suitable memorial in honor of the boys and girls from Kingston who served in the armed forces. While the goal to be reached is still in the far distance, it is hoped that with the aid and cooperation of all the people of our city that this memorial will soon become a realization.

Christmas Cheer

This year, as in the past, your Christmas Cheer Committee has been carrying on its work without pomp or ceremony. Each year many children of deserving families in our city have been made a little bit happier through the efforts of the members of this committee. A debt of gratitude is due to these people for the fine work which they perform each year, and I also wish to thank the many firms and individuals who contribute yearly to this humane cause.

Public Health

During the year of 1946, many accomplishments of importance have been made by the Department of Public Health in Kingston. Mass X-rays were done on all city employees, food handlers, beauticians and barbers and others who have requested it. A food handlers' school was conducted for the express purpose of instructing employees and owners of hotels and restaurants in the most efficient and sanitary methods of handling food and of cleansing dishes. A Child Health Consultation was established for the preschool child, and arrangements were completed for a Mental Hygiene Clinic for persons requesting consultation on mental illness.

Department of Engineering

The routine office operation of this department has increased almost 200 per cent. New and modern systems have been placed in operation for the keeping of valuable records and maps and other engineering data. A weather station has also been placed in operation and is cooperating closely with the State and Federal Departments of the Weather Bureau.

Five new streets have been deeded to the city and surveys have already been made and plans drawn up for the paving and surfacing of these streets. During 1946 all of the structures of the sewage treatment plant, including grit and diversion chamber and the force main interceptor sewer leading to the plant, as well as the outfall sewer from the plant, have been completed by construction forces from this department. It is still necessary to obtain and install some more operating, recording and laboratory equipment such as screens, gates, temperature and recording and measuring equipment, after which the plant will be ready for operation. The construction forces of this department have also been constructing the 42 inch Roosevelt Park outfall sewer at the point where the three water mains supplying the city cross the outfall sewer. This rather delicate work demands that extreme care be used on this section to insure adequate protection to the water distribution system. It is expected that this work will be completed early in 1947.

During the past year, the City of Kingston has suffered the loss of a very valuable employee. Our former city clerk, Leo F. Fennelly died during the month of April. He was a loyal and devoted city employee and was loved and admired by those who knew him. I desire to take this opportunity to thank all of those who have cooperated with me during the past year, and I again ask their continued cooperation in the year which lies ahead. I also wish to extend to each of you the season's greetings and pray that the Almighty God will bestow upon you good health and prosperity in the year to come. I ask his Divine Guidance and assistance in all my endeavors during the months which lie ahead.

Rochford Reports 75 Per Cent in on Christmas Seals

Since the official close of the 1946 Christmas Seal Sale on December 25, contributions of $387.25 have been received, according to an announcement made last night by Edmund P. Rochford, campaign chairman.

"The late returns," he said, "bring the total received up so that we have not attained over 75 per cent of our quota. These returns are from persons who forgot to send in their checks when they received their seals in the mail a month ago."

"We are grateful to them for acknowledging the seals now and we hope that any other residents who may not have made their returns will do so promptly. A new year is upon us and the Ulster County Tuberculosis and Health Association which depends entirely on Seal Sale receipts to support its health program is ready to launch its 1947 campaign against tuberculosis—a disease which kills more young people between 15 and 25 than any other disease."

"With the backing of the people of this county, the association expects to make great progress in the coming year. It is grateful to the people who have responded so well to its appeal and hopes that those who for one reason or another have neglected to make their returns will try to do so immediately."

"Among the projects planned for the coming year, according to Harry S. Ensign, president of the County Tuberculosis and Health Association, are the important work of health education and assistance in rehabilitation of patients with arrested tuberculosis as well as the chest X-ray surveys which must be extended to all our communities. Everyone of the 82,400 persons in Ulster county should have the opportunity of knowing that they are free of tuberculosis. This is our aim working in cooperation with the health officials of the county."

"We shall try to make this modern weapon—the X-ray—available to every adult over 16 in business and in factories, as well as to high school seniors, personnel and teachers in our schools."

19 Explorers Picked

Britain's Colonial Office has selected 12 young scientists, all single, tough and not afraid of loneliness, for two years' polar research in the Empire's most remote possessions, the dependencies of the Falkland Islands, on the fringe of the Antarctic. They include biologists, weathermen and map-makers, and are going out to relieve the same number of men who have been there for 30 months. They will leave London on a 300-ton wooden ship, the Trepassy.

Navy Department Needs Naval Reserve Nurses

The Bureau of Medicine and Surgery of the Navy Department has announced the immediate need for the return to duty of 200 Naval Reserve nurses now on inactive duty.

Volunteers, who will be required to serve for a minimum of one year, will be returned to active duty with the same rank held at the time they became inactive. As a result of demobilization the nursing staffs at naval hospitals have been sharply reduced while the number of patients has remained substantially the same during the past several months. The services of 200 additional nurses are considered necessary to meet the problem next year.

All inactive members of the Naval Reserve Nurse Corps interested in returning to duty are urged to apply as soon as possible to the Superintendent of the Nurse Corps, Bureau of Medicine and Surgery, Navy Department, Washington 25, D. C.

Play Review

by SYLVESTER HOWARD

"Wonderful Journey" is an extremely enjoyable play. Reversing the usual procedure, it was made from a film called "Here Comes Mr. Jordan." The film was reported to have been very fine but it is hard to believe that the stage version is less good.

The story, written by Harry Segall, is rather complicated, being a fantastic account of a fighter who was taken to heaven too soon. The authorities in heaven spend considerable time and effort to return the fighter to earth to fill out his allotted time. Since he had a lot to live for, the difficulty is getting him back in a form he likes. After trying out two or three people, he finally accepts the body of the world's heavyweight champion. Nevertheless, fantasies have the problem of getting the audience to accept the lack of reality.

"Wonderful Journey" surmounts that problem by its lively acting. Donald Murphy, who has the central role, is one of the most refreshing actors to appear on the stage. He plays with tremendous enthusiasm and humor. Although he is on the stage almost constantly, he never fails to keep his role exciting.

Philip Loeb, as his manager, is wonderfully funny. In the unearthly part of the heavenly messenger, Sidney Blackmer, seems a little too severe but perhaps heaven is sobering. Not much is required of the cast, but they all help to make "Wonderful Journey" an unusually entertaining show.

UP-UP-UP-GOES TELEPHONE USAGE

Yes, each new month continues to record an increase in telephone usage over the corresponding month of the previous year. For example, figures recently compiled show that Kingston telephone users made an average of 56,900 calls daily during November 1946—10% more than in November 1945.

The growth of the telephone system, we're sorry to say, has not been able to keep pace with this abnormal increase. That's because many essential materials needed in the manufacture of telephone apparatus are still scarce.

Yet calls generally go through without difficulty. The relatively few delays usually occur during the busiest hours of the day.

Telephone factories are working as never before to produce such urgently needed equipment as switchboards and cables. And every item received is placed in operation as quickly as possible so that we can give our customers ever improving service.

Meanwhile, so that you and others may have the best service possible, here are two ways you can help:

1. The busiest hours are from 10 A.M. to Noon and 3 to 5 P.M. Whenever you can, place your calls outside these hours.
2. Please keep all your calls as brief as possible.

Nasty Weather Is Felt Over Most of Northern Regions

(By The Associated Press)

There were not many clear spots on the nation's weather map today as fresh falls of snow, freezing rain and sleet and a new cold wave extended over a wide section of the country.

The new frigid blasts moved into the Dakotas and Montana from the northwest sending temperatures to 20 below at Bismarck, N. D. The cold wave was expected to move eastward and forecasts were for temperatures of from 15 to 30 below in Minnesota tonight.

Snow fell in many east and central states followed by freezing rains. Power and communication lines in many cities were disrupted by the ice storms.

The sleet and freezing rains made travel on highways hazardous, but federal forecasters said the new cold wave, moving eastward from Montana and the Dakotas, would bring clear skies.

The Northern Rockies, the Pacific coast and Florida were the only parts of the country which escaped the inclement weather.

The freezing rain continued across most of New York state today. State Police said all roads were open, but warned many were slippery.

The U. S. Weather Bureau of Albany had these early morning snow reports: Ticonderoga 17, Glens Falls 11, Fort Plain 9, Ulster 8, Albany 6, Dunkirk and Elmira one. Early morning temperatures ranged from 14 at Ticonderoga to 30 at Buffalo and New York city's LaGuardia Field. The mercury was expected to rise slowly during the day.

House Committee Accuses W.A.A.

voluminous testimony, the committee said, led to these conclusions:

1. Disposition of surplus property is now being conducted in a "far more efficient manner than was the case when the committee began its deliberations." For this the group gave credit to Robert M. Littlejohn, war assets administrator.

2. The regional W.A.A. offices have been in a state of "complete disorganization and in many instances favoritism, if not downright corruption, was apparent in their operation."

3. The entire program for sale of electronics equipment has been "a costly, outrageous series of inexcusable, if not fraudulent, bungling."

4. "Sloppy business methods" have resulted in "a lack of confidence on the part of the public and a reluctance on the part of many sound business concerns to deal with the War Assets Administration."

5. There has been "a catastrophic failure" to have any inventory, and the property records are "in an abysmal state of chaos."

Reports Collision

Mrs. Abbott of 6 Center street reported to the police that her car had been in collision with the car of Thomas Brophy at the intersection of Clinton avenue and Franklin streets New Year's morning.

Mrs. Brophy estimated that her car had been damaged to the extent of about $50, the motor having been knocked loose from its bearings.

Probe May Begin Into R.F.C.'s Way Of Handling Cases

Allen Would Become Prospective Witness; May Take Away Authority

Washington, Jan. 2 (AP)—A sweeping inquiry into the R.F.C.'s handling of war plants and contracts was under discussion today by Republican members of the Senate War Investigating Committee.

The Republicans talked of undertaking the inquiry into the Reconstruction Finance Corporation as the first of several to be carried out if the life of the group is continued by the G.O.P.-controlled Senate.

If R.F.C.'s war activities are probed, a committee member said, it is likely that Jesse Jones, former head of the agency and former secretary of commerce, will be the first witness.

The organization provided much of the financing for wartime industrial development either directly or through an interlocking maze of subsidiaries.

Also high on the list of prospective witnesses would be George E. Allen, who resigned last week as an R.F.C. director after laying before President Truman a comprehensive plan to streamline the agency and take away many of its wartime powers.

There were indications that the Republicans have been looking critically at the R.F.C. for some time with the idea of shearing off much of its authority before deciding whether to give it a new lease on life. Its present Congressional authorization expires June 30.

Senator Brewster (R-Me.), who is expected to head the new war investigating committee, told a reporter that Allen's suggestions seemed to be an invitation for the new Congress to look thoroughly into the agency's operations.

Under a resolution passed by the last Senate, the committee will be continued until January 30. There are four membership vacancies caused by the retirement of Democratic Senators Mead (N.Y.), Tamm (Del.), Briggs (Mo.) and Mitchell (Wash.).

Mitchell's place may go to Senator Harry Cain (R-Wash.) who defeated him. Republican leaders also are considering the appointment of Senator Joseph McCarthy (R-Wis.) as a new member.

Appointments to the committee will be made by Senator Vandenberg (R-Mich.) as the Senate's presiding officer. Since only two Democrats, Senators Kilgore (D-W.Va.) and Connally (D-Tex.) remain as members, two additional will be named from that party.

Record Business Forecast

Albany, N. Y., Jan. 2 (AP)—New York state's commerce commissioner forecasts a record business year for 1947 provided prices and wage demands are held to reasonable levels. M. F. Catherwood declared in a New Year's Day statement that 1947 offered even greater potentialities than 1946 when the state's economy reached new peacetime highs.

HOMI! NURSING HINTS

Treating Wounds

When Junior's hand is cut open by a rusty nail, better call the doctor right away—there's always the danger of blood poisoning. Meanwhile, cleanse the wound thoroughly with soap and water, pour in peroxide to rout out particles of rust and dirt, and then soak the hand in a hot, strong spum salt solution.

If your small boy falls and skinned his knee, cleanse the scraped spot with peroxide of hydrogen. As it foams up, it loosens the embedded particles of dirt.

The Kingston Daily Freeman Reader Service booklet contains 40 pages of helpful advice about home nursing. Tells symptoms and nursing of contagious diseases; care during pregnancy, after operations, in emergencies. A must for every home!

Gothams Win 59-46; Chiefs Crack in Last Two Periods of Play

Brooklyn Is Held To 25-20 Margin During First Half

Fredo Frey, L.I.U. Ace, Tops Scorers With 19; Lockheed Nets 13 for Local Pro Quintet

For two periods Wednesday night at the municipal auditorium the Kingston Chiefs had good designs on the ball game and also third place in the American Professional Basketball League. Then, in a sudden burst of scoring power the bright picture blurred as the Brooklyn Gothams, pace-setters in the Northern Division, proceeded to pile up a comfortable margin and coasted in with a 59 to 46 victory before a fair sized turnout of spectators.

Other League Results
In other league results New Year's Night the Elizabeth Braves scored a big upset by defeating the Trenton Tigers, 60 to 52, and in the only other contest the Troy Celtics hammered out a 71-65 triumph over the Wilmington Bombers.

Fredo Frey, sensational guard from Long Island University, was the chief scorer in Wednesday's tilt as he cleaned 19 points. Frey, who played a tremendous role in scoring, dumped in assorted hook shots, sets and pumpups for his big total. Art Lockheed, former St. Francis College star, who paced the Chiefs to their win last week, nearly did the trick again in the final period. He was high scorer for the losers with 13 points. Martin "Red" Powers was next with 12.

Next Game January 11
The Chiefs will return to the auditorium Saturday night, January 11, for their third home game in the American League. No opponent has been named as yet due to a reshuffling of the league schedule. Representatives of all circuit clubs will meet in Wilmington Sunday to arrange a new schedule. Next week's opponent will be announced Monday.

The Chiefs enjoyed the driver's seat in last night's contest early in the game after Frey scored the first goal with his hook shot from the side. After Sid Blair tied the score, Frey pushed in a foul to put Brooklyn ahead, 3-2. Kingston took over then as Larry Dodick whipped in two fine layups and Martin Powers dumped in a pair to give the Chiefs a 10-3 lead. Brooklyn, displaying a smooth passing attack, forced ahead after Kingston's point guard, however, and was never headed after the opening minutes. Trailing 14-12 after the first period, the Chiefs knotted the count at 18-18 and 20-20 in the midway canto but the Gothams again battered their way out in front.

Gothams Clinch Game
Holding a slim 25-20 edge starting the third period, the visiting Gothams didn't waste much time in clinching the game. Frey who ripped in for hook ups repeatedly, and also three fouls, the Gothams took a 38 to 27 lead in the third session.

Sid Rabin, subbing for Saul Cohen at forward, actually halted the Chiefs' hopes for victory. Rabin nestled in two straight set shots before the third period expired and came right back with another in the opening second of the final quarter. Lockheed gave Kingston fans a ray of hope in the final period when he drilled two set shots in from the side but his attempts were nullified as Brooklyn bounced back with plenty to spare.

Sideline Settings
Last night's victory was the 14th in 18 attempts for the powerful Gothams. Kingston's record is now four victories and nine setbacks. The Chiefs are scheduled to meet the Philadelphia Spas in a regular league tilt Saturday night in Philly. . . . Long John Ezerzyk, big center for the Gothams, thrilled the spectators last night with his one-handed foul shooting. He drilled in three straight foul shots with ease. Les "Knobby" Walsh, former N.Y.U. ace, was held to two points. Frey made up for his absence in the scoring column. . . . Another sensational floor game was turned in by Kingston's guards, Larry Dodick and Joe Dinkwood. . . . After his brilliant performance last night, his second in a row by the way, Art Lockheed should be ticketed for full-time duty at the forward slot.

Glamorous Names Sought
Geneva, N. Y., Jan. 2 (AP)—Scientists at the State Agricultural Experiment Station are searching for "glamorous" names for three new varieties of tomatoes now known unimaginationatively as Geneva Nos. 2, 3, and 5. The difficulty, they explain, is that names must compete with such as "Bonny Best," "Marglobe," "Scarlet Dawn," "Earlana," "Bounty," "Victor," "Rutgers," "Cobourg" and "Landreth," all of them among the present standard of varieties for canning.

Sumatra produces pepper, sisal, tobacco, rubber and oil.

UCLA FORWARD-LATERAL GOOD FOR 28 YARDS

This forward-lateral pass from Quarterback Ernie Case (No. 9 at right) to Burr Baldwin (39), UCLA's All America end, who then lateraled to the Bruins' other end, Tom Fears (55, upper left), was good for 28 yards against Illinois in the Rose Bowl game at Pasadena, Calif. The ball is in the air, just over the line of scrimmage. The underrated Illinois eleven stunned the crowd of 92,000 by smothering the Bruins, 45 to 14. (AP Wirephoto)

Sports World Still Agog Over Illinois Victory in Rose Bowl

92,000 Fans Attend Classic at Pasadena; 440,000 Watch 20 Bowl Encounters

New York, Jan. 2 (AP)—Sports talk today centered around Illinois' almost incredible feat of knocking off a hitherto unbeaten U.C.L.A. eleven 45-14 before 92,000 stunned onlookers at Pasadena's Rose Bowl.

It was by far the largest single game turnout of 20 Bowl battles—the largest number ever—which treated a total turnout of 440,000 fans to 77 touchdown runs and passes.

The victorious Georgia, Rice, Georgia Tech, Oklahoma, Hawaii and Delaware teams all contributed to this New Year's display of gridiron fireworks, but the game that will be remembered longer than any of the others is the 33rd edition of the Tournament of Roses.

Inaugurating the Big Nine Coast Conference five-year plan, the underdog Illinois scored in every period except the third to register as many points against the beleaguered Bruins as the Californians had suffered from their last seven opponents combined. In only two other Rose Bowl games have teams scored more points. Michigan, in the classic inaugural in 1902, scored 49 points in blanketing Stanford, and Southern California registered 47 points against Pittsburgh in 1930.

First Since 1934
The Big Nine champions' one-sided victory gave the visiting eleven their first win since the first time this had happened since Columbia and Alabama collaborated to defeat the Pacific coast teams in 1934 and '35. Alabama whipped U.S.C. last year 34-14.

Coach Ray Eliot's "Little Boys" rolled up 245 yards via land and air with Buddy Young, speedy negro star, scoring two touchdowns, and Julie Rykovich, Paul Patterson, Perry Moss, Russ Steger and Stan Green tallying the others.

The big thrill, however, was provided by U.C.L.A.'s 143-pound tailback, Al Hoisch, who raced a kickoff back 103 yards for a touchdown, the longest and only one from a kickoff in Rose Bowl competition.

A capacity crowd of 73,000, which came to watch a scoring duel between Georgia's All-America Charley Trippi and North Carolina's freshman Charlie Justice saw the undefeated Bulldogs come from behind to hand the Tarheels a 20-10 lacing. Georgia scored all its points in the second half.

The duel between Trippi and Justice never materialized, since Trippi gained but 54 yards in 14 rushes and Justice only 31 in 17 attempts. Trippi completed two passes in seven attempts, netting 70 yards. One of his tosses brought a score, but another was intercepted to set up Carolina's score. Justice threw only one pass, completing it behind the line for a five-yard loss.

An 83-yard drive, climaxed by halfback Carl Russ's 25-yard run and lateral to Hugh Keeney, who ran another 25 yards for a touchdown, and a safety, all in the first period enabled Rice to blank a rugged Tennessee team 8-0 before 38,000 Orange Bowl spectators at Miami.

Arkansas, outgained 271 yards to 54, balked three drives inside its own 10-yard line to gain a scoreless tie with power laden Louisiana State in the 11th annual Cotton Bowl game at Dallas before 38,000 fans. The Razorbacks once halted the Tigers on the two-yard line, another time they threw Louisiana back from the four and still another time they wriggled out after being pushed back to the right.

With full back Edds Davis scoring three touchdowns and Bill Wallace, one, Oklahoma overwhelmed North Carolina State 34-13 before 17,000 in the second annual "Gator Bowl" game at Jacksonville, Fla.

Better Bowling

By BILLY SIXTY

TWO FOR ONE: John Crimmins of Detroit, long a national headliner in bowling, made one mistake in the recent individual match championship meet in Chicago that possibly cost him the title. Experienced as he is, he should have known better, but the mistake was one of those momentary mental slips that add up on the deficit side of the scoring ledger.

It happened in the last qualifying series of six games, and at the time didn't appear important. Crimmins was scoring well enough to be headed for a place with the final 16 who rolled man-against-man for the championship.

The 4-6 pins stood on a "nose" or full hit. Crimmins had a strike up and in his better judgment should have played to knock down either the 4 or the 6 to count 19. He tried to make the split instead and missed both pins to count 18-26. At the end of the series he lost out by two pins for a tie and roll-off with Buzz Fazio and a possible further shot at the title.

A tough break, but one that could readily have been avoided. On a strike, one pin counts two.

Crimmins' failure should be a bitter lesson to him, and all bowlers, to always make every pin possible in every frame of every game. Except of course, the final frame when victory hinges on negotiating a split, regardless of what.

Don't take a chance of missing both pins by trying to make the 7-9, 8-10 or the 4-6 split. They are classed as "million to one" shots. Shoot to get any other splits, but not those three.

At left is Charley Justice (22), North Carolina's sensational back. The Georgia Bulldogs won, 20 to 10, before a crowd of nearly 75,000 persons. (AP Wirephoto)

Illini Warn Foes Early, Then Crush Bruins With Ease

Big Nine Underdog Rolls Over West Coast Team in Great Offensive Scoring Parade

Pasadena, Calif., Jan. 2 (AP)—The Big Nine plays a pretty fair brand of football, the U.C.L.A. Bruins ruefully conceded today. The Bruins were still rubbing their bumps from a bruising 45-14 shellacking by Big Nine champion Illinois in the Rose Bowl yesterday. Coach Ray Eliot and his truly fighting Illini, grinning from ear to ear, prepared to hop a homeward train at noon.

Slight underdogs in the pre-game doping, the twice-beaten Illini fixed dirt warring by scoring in the first three minutes of play. Before they were through defeating the previously all-winning UCLAs, the Eliotmen poured across six more touchdowns. Considered only a fine defensive team, Illinois—rolling behind a magnificent line—ran up 320 yards on the ground, a new Rose Bowl high. Buddy Young and Julie Rykovich each netted 103 yards, averaging better than five per carry, as their hard-charging forwards slaughtered the Bruin tackles and line backers.

All Illini linemen played brilliantly with End Sam Zerkoff and Tackle Lou Agase on a par with All-America Guard Alex Agase. Heisch Thrills Crowd

It remained, however, for U.C.L.A.'s 143-pound reserve half Al Hoisch to produce the biggest thrill of this second-highest scoring game in Rose annals. Hoisch ran back a kickoff 103 yards for the Bruins' second touchdown, the longest run ever made in the famed saucer.

Another record fell when Bruin Quarterback Ernie Case completed 11 of 24 passes for 165 yards, topping by two yards the previous mark. A Case-to-Hoisch pass covering 33 yards set up the other U.C.L.A. score, made by Case on a sneak. The first of Case's two conversions put the Bruins in front, 7-6, at the quarter.

Then, as the spectators sat amazed, the Illini poured across three tallies in the second period and three more in the final stanza.

There was not a trace of fluke in Illini drives of 60, 77, 51, 49 and 86 yards. Young scored two of the touchdowns: As the Bruins grew desperate, Illinois intercepted Case's tosses and ran 64 and 10 yards in the closing minutes. The Illini line held U.C.L.A.'s fast backs to 62 yards running. Their defensive maneuvers outsmarted Bruin blockers.

Freeman League
Standings in The Freeman League remained unchanged Monday night as both Teams 3 and 1 dropped a pair of games. Team 3 holds down first place with a seven game edge.

Team 4, cellar dwellers since the season started, rose up Monday night at the Y. M. C. A. drives and took a pair of games from Team 3. Frank Bruno led the winners with a 173 single and 479 three-timer. Mit Buddenhagen's 164 and 461 were high for Team 3.

Team 2, in third place, applied the same business to the second place Team 1 with a pair of victories. John Haas blasted a 438 to top Team 2 while Claude Markle rattled the maples for a high 163 solo. Art Sheltighner's 185 and 443 paced Team 1.

The World Today

By GLENN BARR

(AP Foreign News Analyst)

To millions of Japanese who still live in the old ways this is the year of the boar, symbol of turbulence and unrelenting. The ancient tradition, which grouped the years in cycles of 12 and assigned to each an animal of the oriental zodiac, was that the character of the new year was lightly to resemble that of its symbol. Nineteen forty-six was the year of the dog, faithful and docile. Believers therefore will expect of 1947 something different from the comparative tranquillity of Japan's first full year of peace under American occupation and tutelage.

In his new year message to the 75,000,000 Japanese over whom he exercises the conqueror's authority, General MacArthur said the nation's progress in 1947 would determine "whether or not it will be able to bring about reforms now being charted."

"It is my prayer," the allied commander concluded, "indeed, my firm anticipation, that the Japanese people will understand and grasp this opportunity and rise resolutely to meet its challenge. Therein lies Japan's salvation . . . and therein lies the hope of all the peoples of the east for a better civilization."

Decisions already taken roughly chart Japan's course in 1947. The new constitution comes into effect May 3. A drastic program of agrarian change, giving land to tenant farmers, is to move toward completion. Labor reforms will place new power in the hands of the industrial masses. The constitution, while retaining the emperor, stipulates that he reigns by the will of the people and not of "heaven." It provides for a democratic parliament. And, most revolutionary experiment of all, not merely for the Japanese but for all peoples, it provides for the possession of armed forces.

Will Determine Status

Close observers feel 1947 will determine whether Japan can become genuinely democratic. Hitherto the reforms in that direction, sweeping as they have been, have been largely of form, on the surface. The masses, still dazed by the cataclysmic changes wrought by defeat and the shattering of old beliefs and loyalties, showed little real comprehension. But the new year, it is hoped, will permit new reforms to work in the next year. Labor alone, with more than 4,000,000 workers organized in unions, will be flexing its political muscles. The peasantry, rescued from the quasi-serfdom imposed by the land tenancy laws and cusoms, is bound to acquire political consciousness and reject much of the old social fabric. The ability of such relatively conservative political elements as those represented in Premier Yoshida's government to keep these new currents under control will be severely tested.

Will Test Ability

Also tested will be the ability or willingness of the victor powers—and this means chiefly the United States—to stand aloof and allow the Japanese to work out their own path toward democracy regardless of what turmoil this may entail. For it must be admitted that in Japan, as in the other Oriental lands in whose destinies we are interesting ourselves, the worldwide conflict between western democracy and Russian Communism is a dominant factor. Thus far the Japanese Communist party has been noisy rather than important, but the new terms will strengthen it and Russian encouragement and support will always be at hand.

The same struggle goes on in Korea, now divided between Russian and American occupation forces with no glimmer of hope visible for early freedom and unification. The United States has made it clear that it is not going to withdraw from Korea unless the Russians go too; otherwise the result would be another Soviet satellite. Even in China, one of the major victor powers, the struggle is between Communism and the forces which Americans hope ultimately can lead this vast community into the democratic camp. But it may well prove that Japan, even in defeat, will prove the key to the future of the Orient, carrying, as General MacArthur says, "the hope of all the peoples of the East for a better civilization."

Marlin and Aronson were unopposed and Haddock had only nominal opposition since the withdrawal of Rep. Clarence J. Brown of Ohio from the race.

Their Democratic colleagues agreed to designate Senator Alben W. Barkley of Kentucky as minority floor leader.

Quads Father Receives Offers to Help Family

Baltimore, Jan. 2 (AP)—Charles Henn, Jr., father of Baltimore's quadruplets, faced the New Year today in a pleasant state of indecision brought on by a developing contest to keep the quads in the city of their birth.

The 28-year-old veteran said he had about made up his mind to reject Building Contractor C. W. Matthews' offer of a rent-free house and a $4,000-a-year job in Newark, Ohio. But still before him was a choice between several housing offers in Baltimore.

The latest of these, rent-free occupancy of "a new $10,000 house," had the war-disabled bookbinder "overwhelmed." The offer was made yesterday by the building firm of Edward Meyerberg and his three brothers, who told Henn he could have the first seven-room duplex cottage to be completed in their new housing development.

Other Baltimore offers include a Cape Cod cottage at cost price and a colonial cottage, rent-free for a year. All the local propositions followed a storm of letters to the editor of a local newspaper complaining of the city's shortsightedness in allowing its most famous family to be lured to Ohio. Henn said he didn't wish to appear to be playing the various bidders for his family's tenancy against each other, but that he had to be sure of his decision for the babies' sake.

The quadruplets—three boys and a girl—were reported doing well at St. Agnes Hospital, where their mother, British war bride Mrs. Dorothy Geast Henn, also is recuperating.

Teachers Advised To Get Contracts From School Heads

Washington, Jan. 2 (AP)—The National Education Association called on teachers today to adopt a policy of "no contract—no work" in future negotiations with school officials.

The Association outlined a long-range program which: 1. Urged a minimum of $2,400 per year for teachers, with regular increases leading to a "professional salary level for experienced teachers ranging from $4,000 to $6,000."

2. Opposed strikes in instances where contracts or agreements already are in existence. 3. Called for more state and federal aid for education.

In a policy statement made public by Executive Secretary Willard E. Givens, the N.E.A. Executive Committee declared it does not condone recent teacher walkouts which violated contracts.

The statement pointed to a clause in the Association's code of ethics which says: "A contract once signed should be scrupulously adhered to until it is lawfully dissolved."

However, the committee contended that "qualified teachers should be bold and forthright in their insistence upon adequate salary schedules . . . and remarked that the code also states teachers should insist upon a salary schedule commensurate with the social demands laid upon them by society."

The committee attributed the shortage of qualified teachers to low salaries "less than those of the bar tender and garbage collector."

Americans Sympathetic He Reports to Russians

Moscow, Jan. 2 (AP)—Victor Poltoratsky, back from New York, told his Izvestia readers today that Americans in the mass were "gay, sociable, hard-working people who in spite of all newspaper propaganda have a sympathetic attitude toward the Soviet people."

Poltoratsky, the Russian government newspaper's special correspondent at the United Nations Assembly, reported that New York streets were dirty, that he had trouble getting trousers altered when he bought them and that United States films were standardized.

"Of course, along with the dark and negative sides of life," he added, "we saw in America things worth emulating. The Americans, for example, have magnificent techniques. The roads are excellently built."

Military Personnel Is Linked With Black Market

Washington, Jan. 2 (AP)—The House Military Committee today approved a staff report stating that a "vast majority" of American military personnel in Europe seem to be "involved one way or another" in black market activities.

The original report was made public by a committee member several weeks ago. The committee said its investigators found health conditions and morale among American foreign personnel good, although "it is quite evident that both enlisted men and officers are rather promiscuous in their association with German women."

Hurley Avenue Collision Damages Four Cars

Banged fenders and other damages of a minor nature, with no personal injuries reported, resulted from collision on Hurley avenue involving four cars, about 4 o'clock Tuesday afternoon.

As reported to the police Stanley J. Matthews of 212 Fair street, driving an Oldsmobile owned by Lloyd Newcombe of Catskill, had started to pull away from the curb when his car was struck by a car being driven west on Hurley avenue by James Struble of Eddyville.

Struble's car swerved and hit an approaching Colonial cab being driven by Percy Parker of 125 Broadway. The collision caused the cab to skid into a car, owner unknown, parked at the curb.

Most badly damaged was the cab, which had both front fenders smashed, grille, hub cap, front bumper and light.

Officer Frank Sammons reported that as Earl Gordon of 81 South Manor avenue was coming out of the driveway near the garage there was a collision between his car and the Maston car which was being driven west on North Front street. After the collision, it was reported, Maston's car ran upon the sidewalk and into the show window, breaking it. There were no personal injuries reported.

Hollywood, Jan. 2 (AP)—In the New Year's first film slat, New York's first Jimmy Cagney received a blood-red nose—a contribution, says actress Gene Tierney, from her estranged husband, Oleg.

In a "silly argument," she said, over who had whose car keys, Oleg and Jimmy slugged it out on a parking lot at Ciro's Restaurant yesterday. Gene intervened, but before she could stop the fight, Castello's nose was spurting blood.

The actress and her sister Pat Castello's companion, drove the men home and later said they had apologized.

Paris' Trial Is Halted by Weather

Witnesses Are Kept From Arriving; Will Be Resumed Monday

New Jersey, Jan. 2 (AP)—Bad weather prevented the arrival of several important witnesses today and caused a postponement until next Monday of the trial of Alvin J. Paris on an indictment charging he attempted to bribe two New York Giants professional football players to "lay down" in the championship game between the Giants and Chicago Bears.

One of the witnesses delayed enroute was Ida McGuire, motion picture actress who was with Paris the day he was arrested on the "fix" charge. She was grounded at Chicago on her flight from the west coast. She reported to the district attorney's office that she would try to make train connections for New York if weather conditions do not improve.

Counsel for both sides conferred in chambers with General Sessions Judge Saul S. Street after they had agreed to 10 peremptory challenges each in the selection of a jury from a panel of 200 persons called.

The court granted the application of Defense Counsel John McMillon for the postponement when he explained the weather had delayed the arrival of witnesses. None of the prospective jurors was in court. Paris was in court for only a few moments and was taken back to Tombs prison where he is being held without bail.

Among the witnesses delayed enroute were Bert Bell, commissioner of the National Football League, reported in Philadelphia; Mrs. James Poole, wife of a Giant end, in Granada, Miss.; Victor Carroll, a Giant guard, in Kansas City, and Howard Livingston, Giant guard, in Wheeling, W. Va.

Woman Reports How She Found Bodies in Room

Algiers, Jan. 2 (AP)—Mrs. Marie Ande Castex, concierge of the building in which George Hayden of Asbury Park, N. J., and his fiancée, Mrs. Virginia Mull McCauley of Great Bend, Kans., died on Christmas Day, said today she found their bodies on the floor in the bathroom of his apartment.

She said there was no disorder in the third-story flat, nothing had been broken and there were no marks of violence. No blood stains were found, but some empty bottles of French liquor were on the floor, she said. Mrs. Castex said neighbors reported no noise.

The American consulate, which requested post mortems to clear the mysterious circumstances of the deaths and police authorities were equally uncommunicative.

Mrs. Castex, who manages the building at 12 Saint Sene's Blvd., a main street in Algiers, said Mrs. McCauley, formerly a WAC lieutenant colonel, arrived by plane on December 20 and that Hayden, formerly of the U. S. First Division, spoke of her as his wife. (They were planning an early marriage, relatives in New Jersey said.)

Mrs. Castex said she discovered the bodies at 8:15 a. m. on Christmas Day and that the doctors who first examined them placed the time of death at about 2 p. m. Efforts tried to revive Hayden and Mrs. McCauley with artificial respiration, but failed.

The precise cause of death has not been fixed officially. Hayden, 27, first was reported to have died of heart cramps caused by acute indigestion and Mrs. McCauley was reported a victim of poisoning.

The American consulate said it was withholding any statement pending word from the State Department in Washington. Hayden was employed here by the Armstrong Cork Co.

Albany, N. Y., Jan. 2 (AP)—State Supreme Court Justice Francis Bergan disclosed today he had received a War Department invitation to consider appointment as a judge at the Nuremberg war crimes trial. He said his answer would depend upon official interpretation of the state constitution which prohibits certain office holders from accepting additional office or public trust. Acceptance would involve minimum service of six months at the international tribunal.

Bergan, a Democrat, was elected to the bench in 1935.

Victim of Camera Shooting Guarded

Mrs. Rocco Is Critical, Police Hunt Her Ex-Husband

New York, Jan. 2 (AP)—Police posted a 24-hour guard today at the hospital room bedside of Mrs. Olga Rocco, victim of a Times Square subway station "camera" shooting, as they expanded their hunt for the pretty Brooklyn housewife's ex-husband, Alphonse Rocco.

The protection was provided, police said, because they feared another attempt on Mrs. Rocco's life be made by the person who plotted Tuesday's shotgun assault.

Mrs. Rocco, who was injured critically when her right thigh was blasted by the full charge of a 12-gauge shotgun, has accused Rocco of hatching the scheme which led Pearl Lusk, 19-year old blonde, to shoot her, using a Christmas-wrapped shotgun she thought was a disguised camera.

Mrs. Rocco's condition remained critical today and hospital officials said it had not yet been decided whether to amputate her left leg.

Police, meanwhile, virtually abandoned the theory that a man who vanished into the surf off Brighton Beach, Brooklyn, was Rocco.

The clothing, left by a young man seen to leave into the ocean, and swim off in his underwear, shoes and gloves, was shown to Mrs. Rocco last night, to Miss Lusk, and to the proprietor of the rooming house where Rocco lived, but no one could identify them as Rocco's.

Detective Henry Strauss said police had not entirely eliminated the possibility that the swimmer was Rocco but that the search would be pressed in other quarters.

"Even had the clothes been identified," he said, "in view of the cleverness displayed by Rocco, nothing short of his body would have stopped the investigation."

Witness Tells Story
Harry Leventhal, a witness to the beach episode, gave police a description of the swimmer which tallied in some details with that of Rocco. Leventhal told police he called to the man, who ignored him. He waited a half hour for the swimmer to reappear, and then notified police, who sent out a launch in a vain search.

Miss Lusk has identified a picture of Rocco as the man who engaged her to take a picture of Mrs. Rocco with an X-ray camera. She told police the man represented himself as an insurance investigator on the trial of a "big jewel thief," who carried stolen goods under her clothing.

She said the man told her he would get a "very good bonus" if the pictures turned out successfully. Police said they also wanted Rocco for questioning in connection with a previous shooting of Mrs. Rocco who was wounded slightly last November shortly after her marriage to Rocco was annulled.

Americans Are Given Taste of Jap Holiday
Tokyo, Jan. 2 (AP)—This was—and is—Japan's gayest New Year's in 10 years and now the country's employers, especially newly arrived American housewives, are trying to round up their workers.

The American wives' introduction to Japan's marathon holiday—it extends from three to seven days, according to the individual whim—came after the servants melted into New Year's eve with a vague promise to return when the celebrating is ended.

Liquids for merriment already have been exhausted, but Japan's holiday custom is stronger than ever, despite unemployment, inflation and the a-t-r-a-n-g-e American custom of insisting that workers earn their money.

Even Tokyo's dance hall operators felt the holiday pinch. They complained that all of their taxi dancers remained away—just when other revelers wanted to dance. They said they lost 20,000 yen at each establishment nightly. That's $1,333.

New Year's is a ceremonial and formal occasion. During this week, they pay their debts, visit friends for their version of oggog parties, visit shrines, jam theaters, and just relax.

Government offices, banks and business concerns are closed—and will remain so until the last tradition-bound employee returns to the job. All the country's big and little crises can wait.

Governor Works On His Message

Mansion to the Capital by a military escort, was given an ovation when he entered the chamber and again when he completed his address.

A festive air pervaded the dignity of the ceremony. Red-ribboned holly wreaths, garlands of balsam, poinsettias and palms decorated the chamber. Legislators, high state officers, state party leaders and other invited guests made up the audience which numbered approximately 900.

While Dewey was receiving his oath, a howitzer detachment from West Point boomed a 19-gun salute.

Postwar Problems
Discussing postwar problems, Dewey said:

"Here in our own country—so much more fortunate than other—we have had present all of the essentials for great economic progress, yet we have so bungled our affairs that there is actual widespread apprehension on every hand of a possible depression."

"Think of it! With 140,000,000 people eager for new cars, new homes and a multitude of goods of all kinds, with vast accumulations available to finance both production and consumption, with the greatest productive plant and the most highly skilled workers in the world—with every requirement for a better, richer, happier life, we have been stumbling along, encumbered by industrial conflict, governmental ineptitude and general foolishness."

"Today the whole world waits with bated breath," he added, "to see whether America will stop its internal quarrelling and get to work or will lead the retreat back to world-wide economic stagnation."

Labor has the right to bargain collectively and business has a right to pursue a profit. "But neither is entitled to exercise the rights at the expense of the economic stability of our society or the fundamental freedom of our citizens," Dewey said.

Governor and Mrs. Dewey were hosts at an informal reception in the executive chamber following the inaugural and later were "at home" to callers at the executive mansion.

Mrs. Olga Rocco, 28, sits on an iron fence and places her arm about the shoulders of her husband, Alphonse, in this picture made after their marriage in 1945. Mrs. Rocco was shot in a crowded Times Square, New York, subway station with a sawed-off shotgun disguised as a camera in Christmas wrappings and police issued an alarm for the husband.

Stock Exchange membership. Success was Fabulous

From then on his success was fabulous. He opened the first Stock Exchange in California to have its own private wire to the coast. That's how far ahead of the field he was. Today the Hutton firm is one of the largest in business, and it still does only on a commission basis.

Early in the 20's through marriage, he became interested in the old Postum Cereal Co. He tried to see the family business for $8,000,000 but no one would take it. So he became a special partner and moved uptown to devote his full time to the cereal company.

Assets of 165 Millions
Through his business acumen, Mr. Hutton developed the Postum enterprise into what is today the gigantic General Foods Corporation. The value of the original Postum stock has been multiplied 8 times. The company that couldn't be sold in the early 20's for eight million today has total assets of 165 millions.

In the 15 years he devoted to Postum and its successors company, Ed Hutton never took a cent in compensation. His gain was in increasing the value of the stock.

Hutton, from his own experience, says there is only one system—the American one—where a poor, young boy can rise to the top of a business or build up his own enterprise. So he has been carrying on a one-man crusade for business men to take the offensive and tell their story to the people as the most effective way of combating the trend toward collectivism.

La Follette May Get Position in Council
Washington, Jan. 2 (AP)—Reports in State Department circles today said Senator La Follette (Prog.-Wis.) will succeed John G. Winant as U. S. Representative on the United Nations Economic and Social Council.

After 21 years in the Senate La Follette ran for nomination as a Republican in the last Wisconsin primary and was defeated by Joseph R. McCarthy. Informed officials said Winant submitted his resignation from the U.N. body several days ago.

Thomas Declares Congress Should Let Courts Rule
Republican Senators Are Otherwise Inclined; Hoffman Plans Proposal
By MARVIN L. ARROWSMITH
Washington, Jan. 2 (AP)—Senator Elbert Thomas (D-Utah), co-author of the law on which portal-to-portal suits are based, said today Congress should keep hands off the issue until the courts have had their say.

But several Republican senators expressed the opinion that the new G.O.P.-controlled Congress will have to come to grips with the snow-balling suits in which unions now seek more than $2,000,000,000 from employers.

On the House side, Rep. Hoffman (R-Mich.) said he will propose amendment of the Fair Labor Standards Act to define a work week as the time actually spent in productive labor.

Thomas said the Supreme Court decision which started the run of suits ruled that workers should be paid for "all time during which an employee is required to be on an employer's premises."

"I was one of the authors of the Fair Labor Standards Act (the law involved) and I know that portal-to-portal pay was not even thought of when the bill was discussed," Thomas said. "Just what constitutes a 40-hour work week is the matter that has to be decided now."

Won't Pass Judgment
"But I am not going to pass judgment on something that is before the courts. And my opinion is that it will be difficult to get Congress to do so, judging from 150 years of precedent."

On the other side of the political fence, Senator Flanders (R-Vt.) said "it would seem that the matter is serious enough so that Congress would take it up among the first subjects of legislation."

Republican Senators Brewster of Maine and Donnell of Missouri said also that they expect something will have to be done, but along with Flanders they withheld comment on just what form it should take.

Senator Hawkes (R-N.J.) said the law should be amended so that suits for back portal-to-portal pay could not be filed later than six months after Congress acts.

Retrospectively Doubtful
Hawkes expressed doubt that any retrospective action could be taken to cut off the suits already filed. So did Senators Alben (R-Vt.) and Moore (R-Okla.).

"Any retrospective legislation would be of very doubtful constitutionality," Moore said.

"With respect to a suggested 'windfall' tax which would recover for the government virtually all money unions might collect from the suits, Moore said: "That wouldn't help business firms. It would just be taking money from them and the workers and turning it over to the treasury."

Byrnes Is Chosen
New York, Jan. 2 (AP)—Time, the weekly news magazine, today selected Secretary of State James F. Byrnes as "man of the year" of 1946. In a discussion of Byrnes, Time said, "by patient, purposeful tinkering with the details of the satellite treaties, he managed to get over to the Russians and the world that the U. S. had planned the weight of its power in the path of the Russian advance."
